The Karuna Trust is a charity founded on the principle of 'compassionate action based on wisdom', the meaning of the Sanskrit word 'Karuna'. In our 35th year we are a thriving Buddhist Team Based Right Livelihood. We give over £1million each year to help marginalised communities escape prejudice and poverty in South Asia.

We currently have the following vacancies based in our London office

- Programmes Manager (full time)
Previous programme management or international development experience preferred.
- Major Donor Relationship Manager (part time or full time)
Previous fundraising or relationship management experience preferred.
- Corporate Fundraiser (part time or full time)
Fundraising, commercial sales, business development or account management experience preferred.

As a team based right livelihood, Karuna's practices and work environment are based on generosity and co-operation. We actively support team members to grow spiritually and provide ample time for going on retreat.

If you think you may have the necessary skills and experience for one of the above positions and would like to find out more about working within a Buddhist Team Based Right Livelihood charity, please contact Chandrasurya for more information on 0207 697 3009 or email csp@karuna.org.
