

Vision for the WLBC: Intentions and Aspirations

Rooted in awareness

1. To share the gift of the Dharma, through clear and creative teaching to alleviate suffering.
2. To communicate the teaching of the Buddha as informed by Sangharakshita's exposition and vision.
3. To manage and develop resources to ensure the future spiritual and financial sustainability of the centre.

Embodying Wisdom and Compassion

4. To have effective and ethical policies and systems for the safety and well-being of everyone attending and working at WLBC.
5. To be a friendly, welcoming and kind spiritual community where diversity and difference are respected and appreciated.
6. To provide a space where people can experience and practise kindness, compassion, joy and equanimity.
7. To provide a broad programme of events and study with clear pathways which support an increasing depth of spiritual practice.

Reaching for Liberation

8. To provide opportunities to connect with our spiritual inspiration and to develop our faith and receptivity through ritual and devotional practice.
9. To provide a context and community for spiritual development and awakening insight.
